Kindergarten Registration opens to new families on November 30.

Outstanding Bills

Parents, please be sure to settle any outstanding fees for registration, logos, etc. If you need to, please contact us to make financial arrangements. We are flexible.

TREAT DAY December 5

Did you have PERFECT ATTENDANCE in November? That means you were never absent or late. If so, we will have a treat for you to celebrate!!

We hope you enjoy your treat!!

VISION SCREENING

For Grades K, 3 & 6

On December 7 @ 9 am, the students in grades K, 3 & 6 will have their eyes screened. The original date was November 18, but had to be rescheduled.

Those of you who chose not to have the screening done don't need to do anything. Everything will proceed as originally planned.

New Logo patches are now available.

$6/patch

Operation Christmas Child

We sent a total of 39 boxes.

THANK YOU!!!!

Winter Is Here . .

Please remember to check your children before they get to school. We play outside in the snow and so we need to be dressed for the snow. Hats, gloves, socks, boots, warm winter coat, snow-pants, etc. Thank you!!

FLU SEASON

Flu Season is definitely here and visiting PVCA!

When to stay home:

Fever, Vomiting, Diarrhea—Stay home at least 24 hours after feeling better.

Severe sore throat, Runny Nose, unknown rash, severe cough (especially when with runny nose or headache), redness, swelling or discharge of the eyes, ears or skin, been acting unwell and have very little energy.—Come back to school when symptoms are gone.

Progress Report Envelopes

Please don't forget to return them to the office!

We reuse these for the next
